

This year's Spoudazo production is "All Yours" and has been compiled by Melody Walden and Kevin Wagner. We will focus on our belief that everything in heaven and earth belongs to the Lord. The music includes contemporary Christian songs from Chris Tomlin, Steven Curtis Chapman, Stellar Kart, Leeland and Casting Crowns. Situational drama is interspersed throughout the production with scenes such as "Are You Smarter Than A Sunday Schooler". Our aim is to share our blessings at each host location with the local Kids Against Hunger affiliate.
